HISTORY OF SYRACUSE SALT: From the late 1700's through the early 1900's Onondaga Lake had brine wells dug or drilled at the lakes' edge, and from wells that tapped halite (common salt) beds near Tully, N.Y., 15 miles south of Syracuse, . The rapid development of this industry in the 18th and 19th centuries led to the nicknaming of Syracuse as "The Salt City."
